W. S. C. S. OF TRINITY CHURCH

The Woman's Society of Christian Service of Trinity Methodist Church met in the home of Mrs. C. A. Moore and Mrs. H. C. Moore on Thursday afternoon, with twenty-four members present. Mrs. M. G. Martin, Jr., had charge of the program, using as the subject, "The Young Girl Goes to the City." Problems that may confront the young girl who moves to the city and responsibilities of the Woman's Society and Guild in helping her make satisfactory adjustments in her new situation were pointed out by five members, Mrs. M. G. Martin, Mrs. Russell Martin, Mrs. H. C. Moore Mrs. R. B. Martin and Mrs S. G. Martin.

Mrs. H. O. Martin taught an interesting lesson on the study book, "The Master Calleth For Thee."

Mrs. W. A. Weakley was elected delegate to the annual meeting of the Womans Society of Christian Service, which will be held in Richmond the last of this month.

A turkey supper was also planned to be served at the Community Center, Stonewall, April 1, for the benefit of the church building fund.

SUPPOSE IT IS TRUE AFTER ALL?

Two friends were discussing the question of punishment for sin in a future life. They settled to their own satisfaction that there was none. They decided that hell was a myth. They agreed that God, being a God of love, could not consign His creatures to everlasting punishment. Then a Christian who had been listening silently to the discussion said:

"Suppose it is true, after all?"

The words seemed to fall on the ears of the two with crushing force. The power of God seemed behind them, as if ever is behind the truth. God had spoken.

Suppose it is true after all that God must punish sin? How would you fare before the Judge?

Suppose it is true after all that hell is a reality, and that "it is appointed unto men once to die, but after this the judgment"? What lies at the end of the path you are now treading?

Suppose it is true after all that the Lord Jesus is the only Saviour? What if you neglect Him? "How shall we escape if we neglect so great salvation?

God hates your sin, but He loves you. He loves you so much that He sent from heaven His sinless Son, Jesus Christ, to die under God's wrath against your sin. As the Bible says, "God so loved the world that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish but have everlasting life." Our sins were laid on Him.

Tell God you want to be included among those for whom Christ suffered; that you do accept Him as your Saviour —the One who suffered in your place. Jesus said, "Him that cometh unto me I will in no wise cast out." There is no problem in your life too great for Him to solve if you will let Him. "Come unto me," He said, "and I will give you rest."

Funeral of Mrs. Gregory

The community, as a whole, and Liberty Baptist Church in particular, suffered a great loss this week when Mrs. Lillie Hancock Gregory passed away at her home here in the early morning hours of March 21.

Born in Appomattox County on June 15, 1879, Mrs. Gregory was the daughter of Charles W. and Emma LeGrand Hancock. She lived her entire life in this community, and was widely known for her active participation in all phases of the work of the church, and for her many deeds of kindness and charity to those in need—in fact, to any one whom she might befriend.

Having united with Liberty Baptist Church in her childhood, she had been a member over a longer period of years than any else on its rolls. She had seen Liberty Church grow from a very small frame building on the site that is now known as Liberty Cemetery, to the present magnificant structure on Church Street, and had contributed freely of her time, her talents and her means to make the great development possible.

From her early youth, her main interest was the work of the church and its program. She never lost an opportunity to speak a word for her church, nor for her Master whom she served so faithfully. Through the years, Mrs. Gregory held many offices in the church and the Sunday School. For a long period of time she taught a Sunday School class, for more than forty years she served as secretary of the Woman's Missionary Society, and at the time of her death, she was Corresponding Secretary for that organization. In spite of her failing health she was still faithful to her duties in whatever capacity she was serving.

This estimiable lady will long be remembered by all who knew her for her generosity, her kindness, her hospitality, her deeds of christian love and charity and her zeal for the work of the Kingdom. Truly, she lived a life of devoted, unselfish, Christian service, and has now received a "crown of glory that fadeth not away." Her life was an outstanding example of the principles laid down in Micah 6:8—"What doth the Lord require of thee but to do justly, to love mercy, and to walk humbly with thy God?"

Mrs. Gregory is survived by one daughter, Mrs. T. M. Trent, of this place; one son, Charles W. Gregory, U. S. N., of Middletown, R. I.; one brother, E. H. (Pete) Hancock, of Lynchburg, and seven grandchildren.

Funeral services were conducted at Liberty Baptist Church at 2 P. M. on Tuesday, March 22, by the pastor, Dr. Carl Collins, assisted by a former pastor, the Rev. M. Thompson, of Middleburg. Interment remains were placed in the mausoleum in Liberty Cemetery. The pallbearers were Thomas Moore, Lawrence Moore, Ed Hancock, Ned Hancock, Robert Patterson, John Cole, DeWitt Burton and C. T. Moses, Jr.

WRESTLING IN LYNCHBURG

Lynchburg,- Someone participating in the main event at Lynchburg's pro wrestling show on Saturday night—Freddie Blassie, The Southern heavyweight champion, or Dr. X, the big protege of Count Rossi who stands a tremendous 6 feet nine, is scheduled to lose something. Blassie, known sometimes as 'the Liberace of Wrestling' could lose: his title and championship belt, his curly locks—and Dr. X stands the chance of losing his anonymity—of being unmasked before the Lynchburg crowd.

Matchmaker Babe Sharkey sent word to Promotor Charlie Laye that the loser of the match would have to agree to these conditions.

The bouts will be held at City Armory, beginning at 8:30 Saturday night. There are two other supporting matches.
